

FIRST YEAR EXPERIENCES (FYE)

FYE 1102 Learn a Global Context II

Class focuses on information literacy, memory, communication and the role these topics play in successful academic progress. Writing and discussion groups promote academic success through core curriculum-focused assignments. An introduction to academic and student life resources through peer and faculty mentoring and awareness of university resources is also included, particularly as they apply to career choice through self-assessment and goal setting. Departmental Approval required.

FYE 1201 Learning in a Global Context

This course focuses on building connections, with peers, mentors, advisors, professors, and other campus resources to encourage growth as successful college learners. Students will also learn ways to develop the attributes to experience academic success. Students will practice taking charge by learning strategies for success in college and life. Students will learn to make informed decisions about their academic and career path in relation to their goals.

FYE 1302 Signature Course

This course builds on FYE 1201 by expanding student focus from self-awareness to global awareness. Designed to introduce undergraduates to in-depth analysis from an interdisciplinary perspective, students will explore community issues through a problem-based approach. This course will foster community engagement by integrating University and other relevant resources.

Prerequisites: Successful completion or concurrent enrollment in FYE 1201
