

CERTIFICATE IN HOMELAND SECURITY

| Code  | Title                    | SemesterCreditHours |
|---|--------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Required Courses                     |                          |                             |
| CRIJ 5321                                   | Terrorism                | 3                           |
| CRIJ 5322                                   | Homeland Security        | 3                           |
| Elective Options (6 credits needed): |                          | 6                    |
| CRIJ 5355                                   | Cybercrime               |                             |
| CRIJ 5371                                   | Organized Crime          |                             |
| PADM 5382                                   | Public Policy Dev&Implem |                             |
| Total Semester Credit Hours          |                          | 12                   |

The online Homeland Security Certificate is a 12-credit hour program designed for practitioners and researchers in the criminal justice field. The certificate provides courses to assist students with career advancement, while continuing to work in the criminal justice field and/or towards a PhD. The certificate integrates the theory and framework for improved comprehension of issues in homeland security, including current legal practices, history, organization, and border issues. This program includes options for electives that cater to individual student interests.